Social Media Code of Conduct

Our online community is important to us, it is a place where we can come together wherever we are in the world.

It is vital that this space is open and accessible to everyone and we welcome you to follow, share and respond to our content.

Art can be challenging and provocative and we seek debate and feedback in a mutually respectful and sensitive manner. We do not tolerate abuse or discrimination on our platforms.

Please be aware of our online community guidelines, noting that contravention of this will lead to removal of anything offensive. We reserve the right to block repeat offenders.

To help everyone enjoy our social media platforms, our guidelines for our online community are as follows:

- We encourage you to come with an open mind and promote healthy and constructive interactions with the wider community
- Respect that other people in the community may have a different perspective. We welcome different viewpoints
- Verbal abuse and swearing will not be tolerated, comments of this nature will automatically be removed from our platforms
- Inappropriate, threatening, offensive, unlawful or abusive comments or images
